Dominant Show by Classic Winners at Westminster Derby

At the 2024 Westminster Derby held at the Sluzewiec racetrack, the standout horses were those that claimed victories in the spring miler classics and had been resting since. Magnezja, expertly trained by Maciej Janikowski and ridden by Per-Anders Graberg, delivered a stunning performance, proving she is not only a superb miler but also a powerful and resilient mare. Despite Zen Spirit's failure to secure the Triple Crown, he performed admirably, finishing second.

Meanwhile, Miss Dynamite clinched a significant victory in the President's Award of Totalizator Sportowy, and Timemaster remained unbeatable in the Fryderyk Jurjewicz Memorial for the fourth consecutive time. Bad Guy Pompadour emerged victorious in the UAE President Cup Central European Derby.

The 2024 Derby Gala at Sluzewiec racetrack was a resounding success, marked by high attendance, excellent organization, substantial turnovers, numerous side events, and, most importantly, thrilling races.

Magnezja's Bold Strategy Unveils Her True Potential

During the spring 3yo season, two stars stood out. Zen Spirit, the winner of the Nagroda Strzegomia and Rulera races, was the top contender among colts, while Magnezja emerged as a dominant force among fillies. Both horses had taken a break from mid-May until the Derby, with neither tested over the distance before, but their trainers had confidence in their abilities. They were right.

Magnezja (IRE) /// trafnews.pl

As anticipated, Colonius took an early lead, setting the pace for the other Westminster horses despite starting from the 16th position. Magnezja (number 4), Bonnie Elizabeth (10), and Lovely Lena (11) started strong but were soon overtaken by Colonius. Leading decisively, he was joined by Bali at the backstretch, who caused some difficulties for Benjamin Marie.

This pair gained a slight lead over Magnezja and Mister Ursus, who advanced, maintaining a 3-4 length lead over the trailing group led by Rori Star, Bonnie Elizabeth, and Lovely Lena. Mr Horn and Naughty Peter were at the back of the pack from the very beginning.

Nearing the end of the turn, Magnezja and Mister Ursus galloped effortlessly at the front, allowing them to overtake the weakening leader 600 meters before the finish line (Bali had already fallen back).

2024 Westminster Derby /// trafnews.pl

Although Zen Spirit closed more than half the gap, he couldn't threaten her lead. The two horses left their rivals far behind. Smoke Plume, finishing strongly in third, was 11 lengths behind Zen Spirit, with Cunning Fox trailing three more lengths behind. No Stress secured the final paid position, outpacing Mister Ursus and Naughty Peter.

This victory was a major success for Magnezja's owners, Pawel Dukacz and Dominika Witusiak, who had strong faith in their filly. Maciej Janikowski once again demonstrated his expertise in preparing a horse for competition, despite skipping major distance trials. This marked the sixth Derby victory for a thoroughbred trained by him, and the second consecutive year (following last year's success with Westminster Moon).

Miss Dynamite Outshines Her Rivals

Kishore Mirpuri and Wojciech Zmiejko, the owners of Zen Spirit, had high hopes for a Derby victory. Although their three-year-old didn't win, he performed exceptionally well over the challenging 2400 meters, despite initial doubts. Overall, it was a fantastic day for them. Just over an hour earlier, their four-year-old Miss Dynamite claimed victory in the premier race for 4-year-olds and older thoroughbreds. Also trained by Maciej Jodlowski, like Zen Spirit, she demonstrated that her poor performance in Wroclaw was merely a one-off incident.

Miss Dynamite (IRE) /// trafnews.pl

The race didn't start well for Migliore Speranza and the favored Jardin Michelet, who fell to the back of the pack. In the early stages, Juris and Glady Eagle vied for the lead, with Juris eventually setting a consistent pace (7.4-31.5-32.6-32.7-32.5). Behind Glady Eagle, Miss Dynamite and Lady Jaguar positioned themselves in third and fourth. On the final turn, Nordminster, Jolly Jumper, Senlis, and Jardin Michelet, who had been pushed very wide, began to close in from the outside.

Meanwhile, Miss Dynamite glided effortlessly near the rail, quickly taking the lead.

Lady Jaguar also advanced along the rail, and Jolly Jumper surged in the center of the track. Jardin Michelet tried to accelerate on the far outside. The closer Miss Dynamite got to the finish line, the stronger her gallop became. She eventually pulled ahead by four lengths, with jockey Vaclav Janacek making a triumphant gesture. Nordminster, trained in Germany, secured second place, fending off Jolly Jumper's attacks. Jardin Michelet claimed fourth place from Lady Jaguar at the finish.

Timemaster Unstoppable

He is a true phenomenon of the last few seasons. Timemaster proved once again that, when in form, he is practically unstoppable. He won the Fryderyk Jurjewicz Memorial for the fourth consecutive time, and the style of this year's triumph is awe-inspiring.

Shamadram set a strong pace ahead of Marigold Blossom and Freak Out. Timemaster, ridden by Dastan Sabatbekov, was positioned in 4-5 place, while the guests - Ignacius Reilly from the Czech Republic and Abelard F from France - ran at the back. For the first 200 meters of the finishing straight, the front runners changed little, but then Timemaster shifted into a higher gear, finding a path near the rail. He soon took the lead and began to pull away from his competitors. Among them, Abelard F fared best, but he still lost five lengths to the winner. Marigold Blossom performed very well, maintaining third place by a head over Anator.

Timemaster's owners are Krzysztof Ziemiński's stable - Niespodzianka and Marianna Surtel.

102nd Hungarian Derby - GEZA Best 3yo in Hungary

Geza (IRE), a 3yo colt (Sioux Nation - Great Job), justified his role as the favorite (1.9/1) and in the end, won the Hungarian Derby relatively easily. This bay colt is owned by the Prolong company, which after securing first and second places in the trotting derby (the day before), recorded their first victory in the galloping derby.

Geza was the betting favorite for a reason, as he is the winner of the first classic of the season (2000gns) and the most important derby prep race (Alagidij). Before the race, there were questions about his stamina over the derby distance, but the race dynamics worked in his favor as the tempo was relatively slow. Also, the small number of participants (only 10) allowed him to have no traffic problems in the final stretch.

Geza (IRE) /// ZL Photos

The winning trainer is Pal Csontos, who trains at the Dunakeszi training center near Budapest. Geza was ridden by Bulgarian international Stanislav Georgiev, who has been achieving outstanding success in Hungary for years.

In second place was the filly Tunezia (FR) (Garswood - Telling Stories), surprising bettors (12/1) as she was not among the favorites before the race. She was excellently prepared by trainer Sandor Kovacs. In third place was the second favorite, Flying Aquangel (IRE) (Mastercraftsman - Fleur de Lui), who by pedigree should not have had a problem with the distance. He led the race from the start, but in the finish, he did not have enough speed to resist the attack of the exceptionally fast Geza. The prize fund for the race was around 58.000 euros.

Stanislav Georgiev and Geza /// ZL Photos

In other races, it should be noted that in the prestigious 2,600m race HONVEDELMI MINISZTERIUM DIJA (Ministry of Defense Race), the victory was secured by Merci Star (HU), a 4yo F of domestic breeding (Tai Chi-Miss Turpan), trained by Szuna Szabolcs like her mother. Second place also went to a horse of domestic breeding, Lost In Space (HU), a 4yo (Silver Frost-Lucy) trained by Zsala Csaba.

Baden

07.07.2024.

Gerhard Mayr records three wins as a trainer and two as a driver!

At the Baden racecourse, the traditional Baden Ascot race meeting is held every summer, and this year it lived up to its reputation as a cult event. The entire day was filled with elegance and excitement in front of 2.500 spectators who placed bets totaling around 95.000 euros. Good spirits and atmosphere were not dampened even by the rain in the second part of the day.

The race of the day was the LS-Serie final, which traditionally always concludes on Baden Ascot day! The prize fund amounted to 5.000 euros. The race was run over a distance of 2.100 meters with an auto start.

Grafenegg /// Eddy Risavy

The victory in a fantastic finish was claimed by Grafenegg, an 8-year-old gelding (Broadway Hall - Fabiola Makay), justifying his role as the favorite with odds of 3,1/1. Trained and driven by Gerhard Mayr, and owned by Stall Salachtall and Romana Kernbichler, this beauty won with a time of 1:17,0.

Grafenegg /// Eddy Risavy

He was followed by the rejuvenated Garcia and Afunddavon.

Gerhard Mayr, the winner of 29 gold helmets in Austria, also won with Kiwi's Sixth Sense, a son of Southwind Frank and grandson of Muscle Hill, and the mare Power Kiwi, one of Gerhard Mayr's best broodmares.

This 5-year-old stallion recorded a time of 1:17,1 over 2.100 meters.

In the fourth race, Lawrence Boko celebrated with Michael Schmid for owner Benchmark Stables. Six years old and a son of Zola Boko and Florence Boko, he was bred by one of the most famous breeding operations in the world, Stable Boko!

Xaver Venus and Ari Karlenkaski were second, and Aaron and G. Mayr came third. The winning time of Lawrence Boko over 2.600 meters was 1:17,9.

An upset was seen in the "Free for All" race, where former Austrian Derby winner Diamant Venus celebrated with his owner Ing. Peter Sykora with a time of 1:14,8 over 1.600 meters. He is 8 years old and a son of Light Kronos and Uschi Diamant. How Nice SR and Erich Kubes finished second, and third were Juliano MO and Mario Zanderigo.

Diamant Venus /// traben-in-baden.at

In the amateur part of the program, there were two races where the absolute winner was the sixteen-year-old granddaughter of the champion Stefanie Mayr, who celebrated in the first race with Power Shaman, a 6-year-old gelding (Shaman Hall - Meerwind), with a time of 1:16,2 over 1.600 meters, ahead of Dallas Venus with Karl Gruber and Camelot L with Matthias Walcher.

This girl was exceptionally spirited in the second race with Power Vita, a 4-year-old mare (Muscle Massive - Arnie's Vita), finishing second. However, the winner of this race was Queen of Mystery BO, a 4-year-old mare (Andover Hall-Sweet Home Alabama) with amateur champion Thomas Royer. The winning time was 1:19,6 over a distance of 2.100 meters.

There are no major changes in the current championship standings. Among the drivers, Gerhard Mayr is leading, followed by Cristoph Fischer in second place and Hubert Brandsteter in third. Among the trainers, Mayr is ahead of Sasha Fischer, and among the amateurs, Thomas Royer is leading overall, while Stefanie Mayr is currently the best among the women, now ranked fifth overall, making her the youngest female driver ever at that position!

The next race day is scheduled for Sunday, 14.07, featuring the 36th edition of the Austrian Mare Derby!

110th Hungarian Derby Winners Enjoy and Imre Fazekas

The trotting veteran managed to add another derby to his showcase on a warm July afternoon, this time with the son of Maharajah and Journey Boko, setting a new record in the Hungarian derby race with 1:15,0/2.500m.

From start to finish, this great beauty led the race and won the derby very convincingly. The winner is trained by Bernadett Balogh and owned by the Prolongo stable, headed by Mr. Rutkai.

Enjoy and Imre Fazekas /// Peter Reka

In second place was Eternity Bar with Veljko Mazic, owned by the same owner as the winner. This mare is by the legendary mare Salome Bar and Maharajah. Third place went to El Diablo with guest driver Thorsten Tietz from Germany, who is based in Berlin.

A new national record for three-year-olds was set by the mare Freya T.Boko with Goran Zolnaji in a time of 1:15,5/1.800m in the Count Esterhazy Miklos race. In a brilliant finish, she delighted trainer Adrian Burany and owner Tisma stable, Mr. Milan Tisma from Serbia. The runner-up was Friday Night, the son of Tuonoblu Rex and another excellent mare that used to race at Kincsem Park, Sultana Jet, owned by stable Lausra and trained by Robert Granmuller, with again the guest from Germany, Thorsten Tietz, driving. Third place went to Farosz with Joze Sagaj, currently the best Slovenian driver.

Enjoy and Imre Fazekas /// Peter Reka

The race for horses with the most points was the Sinka Jozsef Emlekverseny over 1800m. Unfortunately, Maugli and Unno del Duomo did not start, so the race was reduced to five horses, among which the favorite, 6-year-old mare Cardenas Baba (From Above - Ulan Bator Babe), managed to justify her role with a time of 1:15,1, with champion trainer of Hungary, Goran Zolnaji, driving. This mare showed excellent form after two not-so-great performances and now seems to be back in top shape. Second place went to Bonaparte Boss with Veljko Mazic, and Palace Bo and Imre Fazekas finished third in this prestigious race.

The final big race of the day, the Panoniu Dij, was won in an excellent finish by Dolomit Boy, a 5-year-old (Maximus Lindy - Titan Lady) with Imre Fazekas, ahead of Catania R (J. Sagaj) and Csabito R (M. Lajos). Over a distance of 1800m, the winner trotted in 1:14,5.

Statistics - The leading positions among drivers are shared by Goran Zolnaji and Imre Fazekas, and the top trainer positions are held by Balogh Bernadett and Goran Zolnaji.

At Kincsem Park, there will be a break until July 27th, when the Kanca Dij (Derby for mares) is scheduled.
