Bella Antonella Shows Her Strength in the Oaks!

A major surprise occurred in the race for the Lira Prize, the Polish Oaks. The role of the big favorite did not suit Magnezja, who today "was not herself" on the straight and could not finish. Lady Monia and Luna Rae performed better, but Bella Antonella, trained by Wojciech Olkowski, proved to be unbeatable. Ultimately, she won easily by 4 lengths under Anton Turgaev. For the experienced jockey, it was an extremely successful day, as he also led the three-year-old Smoke Plume to victory in the race for the Kozienice Prize. In the race for the Syreny Prize, the favorite Jenny of Success couldn't keep up with Vinnare.

Bella Antonella (IRE) /// trafnews.pl

After a fantastic success in the Derby, Magnezja had to be the favorite in the Oaks, especially since she outdistanced other participants in the Blue Ribbon race by many lengths. Statistics were also in her favor - since 2000, all Derby winners (except Greek Sphere, who did not run in the Oaks) also triumphed in the classic for fillies. Trainer Maciej Janikowski was quietly hoping for a double victory, as he also had the strong Lady Monia, who was second in the pre-race rankings.

Other contenders included the Novary winner Cherie Noire, and the highly rated but enigmatic Luna Rae, assessed positively by the trainer and experts. Unfortunately, the first of them was stopped by the jockey after running about 400 meters due to an injury.

Bella Antonella (IRE) /// trafnews.pl

Meanwhile, Crystal Wine set a strong (in the initial phase) pace. Lady Monia immediately settled behind her, and soon Bella Antonella improved to third place. The rest of the peloton followed behind her. Magnezja, ridden by Dastan Sabatbekov, was in the 5th-6th position but with some distance to the leaders. On the last turn, the pace slowed down a bit, which Konrad Mazur took advantage of, and his mount Luna Rae improved to fourth place on the outside. She came out wide on the straight, but with a smaller gap to the leading trio.

Crystal Wine faded quickly, while Bella Antonella attacked Lady Monia. 300 meters from the finish line, she began to pull away from her rival, who in turn was being approached by Luna Rae. Ultimately, Bella Antonella won easily by 4 lengths in front of Luna Rae, who overtook the tired Lady Monia. Freedom Lily, surprisingly, performed very well, finishing fourth and sensationally defeating Magnezja.

Trainer Wojciech Olkowski had been asserting for a long time that Bella Antonella (Belardo - Bint Nayef, Nayef) was in excellent form. He emphasized that the target race was the Oaks. In June, the filly won the Solina Prize race, but finished 5th in the Novary, which slightly cooled the optimism before Sunday's race. The owners of the Oaks winner are Joanna Turek, Katarzyna Borkowska-Mekarska, Bogdan Gagala, and Agnieszka Zagorska.

Three-Year-Old Smoke Plume Dominates Opponents

Although the race for the Kozenice Prize had only five participants at the start, it brought together an interesting and international field. The public and experts' favorite, after an impressive victory in the Fryderyk Jurjewicz Memorial, was the outstanding Timemaster, but strong Lightning Jock came from Germany, the interesting Merino from the Czech Republic, and also representing out-of-town stables were track record holder (2000m - 02:01) Anator and Derby third-placed Smoke Plume.

Smoke Plume (GB) /// trafnews.pl

Merino set the pace, but he galloped the first 500 meters calmly (33 sec. on the elastic track). Then the race evened out (31.2-31.3-31.4), but after coming out onto the straight, the colt weakened. Then, the second three-year-old, Smoke Plume, ridden by Anton Turgaev, improved to second position on the turn. The colt accelerated nicely and moved away from the rivals.

Timemaster did not have his day, as he made a short effort and then faded. He galloped for a secure third place, but unexpectedly lost it in the end to the fighting Anator. Meanwhile, Lightning Jock tried to catch Smoke Plume, who last year won the prestigious Westminster Freudschaftspreis at Sluzewiec for Frank Fuhrmann. This time he couldn't keep up, losing by 0.75 lengths to the three-year-old carrying 5 kg less.

Greek trainer Ioannis Karathanasis prepares the winner in Warsaw for M. Choglastou. Earlier, Smoke Plume, who is emerging as a major revelation of the season, was first in Iwna, and also third in the Derby and Ruler.

Vinnare Stops Jenny and Makes Up for Lightning Jock's Loss

Certainly, Frank Fuhrmann came to Warsaw for a victory and, although his ace did not achieve it, he managed to win. In the race for the Syreny Prize, his trainee Vinnare was competing. It seemed that Jenny Of Success, who won the last two editions of this race, had the best chances of winning, and she quickly took the lead. Marigold Blossom, trying to keep up with her from the start, paid a high price and completely faded on the straight. Jenny, under Abaev, defended bravely, but Vinnare, ridden by Szczepan Mazur, made a strong attack from the inside. For a long time, the fillies fought almost head to head, but in the last 50 meters, Vinnare gained a slight advantage and did not let it go. Third, with a greater distance, was Alis Glorae, ahead of the three-year-old Regina Force.

Karlovy Vary · Race day 4 · August 04

Oaks decided by a great solo from Fine Anyway

The fourth classic race of the season, the first top race for two-year-olds, and a well-attended Category II Spa Mile were offered on the first Sunday of August by the Karlovy Vary racecourse at the most significant racing day of its calendar, under the financial sponsorship of the Rabbit Holding. The highlight of the day was completely dominated by the winner of the Great June Prize and the sixth-placed in the Czech Derby, FINE ANYWAY (Galiway), whose victory over the favored Eskadra Zero (Phoenix of Spain) was aided by the bold tactics of jockey Tomas Lukasek.

Fine Anyway (FR) /// dostihy.fitmin.cz

At the start of the 79th Oaks of Rabbit CZ Holding (3yo fillies, 2.400m, 550.000 CZK), 11 fillies lined up, with bettors placing the most faith in the Czech Derby-placed Eskadra Zero and Fine Anyway. Making her Czech debut was a new acquisition of the Loko Trans stable, La Tour du Bois (Wootton Bassett), and also favored was the trial winner Quiera (Decorated Knight), an Irish-born filly bred by Marek Simak. The theoretical predictions were almost one hundred percent correct, with just the two biggest favorites swapping roles compared to the paper forecasts.

After the start, Ranevskaya (Taj Mahal) took the lead with David Liska, followed by Fine Anyway ridden by Tomas Lukasek, while the favored Eskadra Zero closed the field. On the opposite straight, Ranevskaya began to move away from the field, with Fine Anyway joining her, and the pair quickly created a significant lead over the other fillies. Before the final turn, the lead was almost 15 lengths, and at that moment, Tomas Lukasek took control with Fine Anyway. Entering the final straight, the filly had a huge lead, which the strong-finishing Eskadra Zero from the back of the field significantly reduced, but she could not threaten the sovereign FINE ANYWAY. The filly of the Statek Blata Cesky Raj stable reached the finish with a comfortable lead of 3 1/4 lengths, scoring her second top-level victory. Third, but with a 12-length loss to Eskadra Zero, was La Tour du Bois, followed by Quiera in fourth, three lengths back, and the board was completed by Our Last Angel (Recorder). On the track rated as good to soft, the winner clocked a below-average time of 2:37,33.

In the 45th Masis Prize - Renomia Agro (Category I, 1.200m, 150.000 CZK), the unbeaten Loch Swan (Gregorian), trained by Jozef Chodur, reached for victory in Slovakia in two starts, but in the last meters, she was overtaken by two powerful-finishing Czech representatives, Lada (Time Test) and Eternitys Grey (The Grey Gatsby), with LADA, ridden by Tomas Lukasek, prevailing. She outpaced the debuting Eternitys Grey, the first offspring of the double classic winner Eternity (Power), by a head. Loch Swan finished third, followed by another debutant, Dino (Hello Youmzain), the son of the top-level mare Dorotka (So Long Slew).

Lada (IRE) /// dostihy.fitmin.cz

Now unbeaten in two starts, Lada from Helena Vocaskova's lot, representing the DB Logistic s.r.o. stable, is another successful granddaughter of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) in our turf. She was brought to us from the Goffs Yearling Sale, where Tomas Janda purchased her for 4.000€.

Double for Rabbit, Allan Petrlik, and Jaromir Safar

While only one Czech-bred filly started in the Oaks, and in the Masis Prize, Czech breeders were represented only by horses born and raised in France by Loko Trans and Haras de Beaufay, the third highlight of the day, the 36th Spa Mile Mikrop Cebin a.s. (Category II, 1.600m), was confidently won by the Czech-born DISCOVERY DAY (Dux Scholar - Diredawa, Access To Java) from Vaclav Luka Sr.'s breeding, trained by Frantisek Zobal. Last year, he ran only three times, but this year he has run four times, and the spa mile was his third full success.

In addition to Tomas Lukasek, who won both top-level races, Jaromir Safar, returning from France, also achieved a double. First, he led the three-year-old RABBIT IDAHO (Idaho) to a start-to-finish triumph in the Mydlarky Benesov Prize (Handicap Category III, 2.000m), and half an hour later, he showed in the saddle of the still winless RABBIT SADDEX (Saddex) in the Primo Josef Chejn s.r.o. Prize (Handicap Category IV, 2.000m) that Allan Petrlik's charges can win in other ways than from the front.

Martina Havelkova, in the opening Jatky Cesky Brod a.s. Prize (Category III, 1.400m), in the saddle of her own charge PERFECT KORDULA (Profitable), increased her lead in the jockeys' championship, and the currently most successful amateur jockey on Czech tracks, Matyas Luka, also added another point in the saddle of the four-year-old MIURA (Havana Grey), who was not stopped even by the highest weight in the field on her way to victory in the Dux Josef Chejn s.r.o. Handicap Prize (Category IV, 1.600m). The meeting concluded with the triumph of the three-year-old CORSAIR (Zarak - Kolymbia, Kyllachy), another horse born and raised in France by a Czech breeder - this time Dr. Jiri Charvat - in the DZS Struharov a.s. Prize - Memorial of Miroslav Kocourek (Category IV, 1.600m).

Trotting News

Austria

Baden

04.08.2024.

Racing day with about 1.500 visitors marked the beginning of the second part of the summer season, featuring one racing day composed of ten races, serving as a prelude to August 11th when the 4th Hochstaffel Memorial is scheduled.

The program opened with a race for horses with earnings up to 15.000€, where Johan Lichtenworther's 6-year-old mare FLAIR VENUS (Celebration XL - Flair As) excelled, winning ahead of Abbaco's Prime and Adonis MO. This was Flair's second victory of the current season.

Lincoln D'Oyse, driven by Manfred Strebel, recorded its first victory in Austria, trotting 1:18,1/1.600m. This horse is a descendant of Royal Dream, the sire of Honeck (08,8). Second place went to Oberon Boko (Lichtenworter), and Sykora came in third with Palatani.

Perhaps the most interesting race was the one for earnings up to 9.500€, where Major Viking and Henri de Pari battled to the finish line. In the absence of her father Gerhard, Conny Mayr perfectly drove the 6-year-old gelding (Orlando Vici-Cindy Viking) to his second victory of the season. The entire race, she was parked behind Kubes with Henri de Pari, and when Brandstetter made a small mistake with Angle Face, Major took advantage and secured his sixth victory of the season. She is currently the eighth driver in Austria

(the best female driver ever in Austria). Due to Brandstetter's mistake, Angel finished third. Major's time was 1:18,8/2.100m.

Kubes performed better than Conny in the handicap race, celebrating with Free Soul right in front of Mayr's successor, who was in the sulky with Be Happy Now. Free Soul is a 10-year-old gelding (Alesi Om-Seduces Your Soul). Thus, Kubes avenged his earlier defeat by the lady. Third place went to Funny Rose Venus and Brandstetter.

Kubes' second victory came in the PMU race for horses with earnings of 27.000€. Driving Eve de Veluwe, an 8-year-old mare (Brad de Veluwe - Utwo Honey), he celebrated ahead of Athletic Power with Krenmayr and Alvena Mateuss, as well as Lady Lucie.

The last PMU race was designated for the Austria Cup final, with horses that had qualified through previous races. Karl Hobart and Filou Venus, a 4-year-old gelding (Light Kronos - Fleur De Lee Venus), won ahead of Magic Thomsen R and Shiva Venus, trotting 1:20,4/2.100m. As this was a PMU race, the winner earned 1.300€.

The next racing day is scheduled for August 11th, starting at 16:30.
